How the auditions are judged:

Open Auditions are held annually before a panel of judges who are unaware of who has performed with us before. Dancers are ranked according to their technical level, their ability to learn combinations quickly and their stage presence.

What to do:

Come early to stretch and feel comfortable. You will be given a class and steps to do. There is no need to prepare a combination or bring video tapes. Smile a lot!!

What to wear:

Girls should wear pink tights and ballet slippers. Hair should be up. If are wearing warm-ups, you will be asked to take them off. If auditioning for the senior company, bring your pointe shoes. And of course, no jewelry and no gum.

Boys should wear black tights, either black or white shoes and t-shirt or leotard in a solid color.

How you are notified:

You will be given the secret to getting on our web page where the results will be posted with in 48 hours.

If you are accepted:

You are expected at each and every rehearsal between now and the performance. Please don't audition and take the part away from someone who can make all rehearsals if you know that you have an important family event that will take you away for a weekend.

Auditions are held at:
